Doctrine and Covenants 59:20–21

And it pleaseth God that he hath given all these things unto man; for unto this end were they made to be used, with judgment, not to excess, neither by extortion. And in nothing doth man offend God, or against none is his wrath kindled, save those who confess not his hand in all things, and obey not his commandments.

Instructions: Fit the bold words from the scripture below into the encircled squares. Words will read forward, backward, up, down, and diagonally and will normally cross other words. Start with the hints provided.

Doctrine and Covenants 58:27–28

Verily I say, men should be anxiously engaged in a good cause, and do many things of their own free will, and bring to pass much righteousness; For the power is in them, wherein they are agents unto themselves. And inasmuch as men do good they shall in nowise lose their reward.
